-See Sheriff's sales. -Don't forget the farmers institute, notice of which appears elsewhere.

-The campaign meeting will be held in Winnsboro on the 26th inst. -The colored excursion left for Charlotte at 10 o'clock on Friday morning. Quite a crowd was on board.

-The teachers' institute opens at 9.30 this morning. The exercises will be interesting and the attendance should be large.

-A very heavy rain fell in the neighborhood of Wateree on Thursday, and did considerable damage. The hillsides were badly washed.

-The Sixth Massachusetts Regiment volunteers passed through on Wednesday. They go to Charleston, there to take transport for Santiago.

-The steady soaking rain that fell on Tuesday afternoon and night was general and the crops all over the county will be much benefited by it. -Miss Annie Davis was "at home" to quite a number of her friends on Thursday evening. It is needless to add that all present were delightsully entertained.

-Try Hennies' 6 for 35c. photographs. They are up-to-date in style and finish.

Her only fighting fleets are at the bottom of the sca, after completed Misses Hattie Buechell and Kittie gentleman to run, every man in the failure to inflict damage upon our Patrick are with us again after an county would be proud to have a squadrons. Santiago is at Shafter's Sampson's if he shall conclude to enter the harbor with his terricle fighting machines Havana is helpless and San Juan needs only an attack to reduce is defenses.

In brief, Spalu cannot fight any longer with the remotest hope of success. Even the optimism of deluded ignorance must see this now. Why not stop the useless struggle? Surely the hysterical Spanish "honor" is now satisfied. For even their enemies stand ready to pay a willing tribute to the bravery with which the Spanish soldiers and sailers have fought in this war. If Spanish statesmanship has any sense it will now sue for peace. If Spain has any friends among the civilized stions they will counsel and if necessary compel her to this timely course .- New York World.
